Understood. Thanks Peter.

We still have a hole around our halves though. Ash Harrison might provide a nice triangle with Smith and Sutton if you can smuggle him back somehow.

not sure we can pay the money

btw i don't think he will ever come back why would he? he was paid 300K during the period we were out (or roughly that) and a lot of people think he "owes the club" something. he therefore thinks that there will be pressure on him to accept less and people will have high expectations of him. league is not a sport where little guys do well having the weight of the world put on their shoulders. not least because jealous big guys don't mind seeing their own guys take a hit or two.

what we should have done was put 300K into a fund that only matured if he came back and played for us.

..of the puzzle.

You have done very well with recruitment on many fronts. I congratulate you.

However, I will add this. If there is any possible way of attracting Craig Wing back to Souths it should be done.

Good luck.
