Dear Paul,

I am in receipt of your letter of 26 September 2006.

My simple response is this: It is time we move on as a Club, it is time we beat swords into ploughshares, put away the lawyers, start smashing Roosters not ourselves, and bring the entire Red and Green army back together again for one purpose: to be a winning NRL team again.

We must not forget the positive elements of our past, and remember our heroes. But the fighting must fade away if we are to succeed against our formidable foes in the League and from other codes that would like to see us disappear.

I sincerely hope you can get behind this great Club and help make it a winning Club again.

Sincerely,
